

Exo for HP G8/G9

The Brenthaven Exo laptop case for HP G8/G9 is the perfect, custom-molded protection for classroom Chromebook deployments. Designed to enhance HP's G8/G9 design while offering the best-in-class protection! Exo protective cases are the ultimate pairing of protection and functionality, with easy installation under 30 seconds.

Perfect for asset scanning without having to remove the case! Both top and bottom feature a clear finish for maximum asset label visibility, making it an ideal solution for the K-12 environment. The top cover features impact-dispersing Crumple Zone™ corner construction that protects vulnerable corners of the device to provide reliable and secure drop protection.
